FORSYTH'S GOOD RACING.

The weather was fine overhead, but the track was heavy at Forsyth yesterday. The attendance kept up and three favorites won. The biggest outsider to land the money was Ben Falk's Santa Cruz in the second race. The Californian made a runaway race of it, winning at 15 to 1. His owner did not have a dollar on him, but rather laid against him in his book. In the first race My Hebe was heavily backed but just as the machine snapped, her martingale got in her mouth, and she was left at the post. Ferryman II. winning easily, and Bob Farrell, a 60 to 1 shot, running into third place. Killarney, the favorite, in the second race ran badly and finished last.

Old Forerunner, in Brown Dick's stable, made his appearance on the track after a year's absence. He looked well and ran a good race, though Disturbance beat him with something left after a hard drive down the stretch.

Caufield captured the handicap in good style, and Doctor G. ran a good race behind him. There were only three for contention in the three-quarters, selling, all the others being at 100 to 1 and over. Weola was an odds on favorite and she won handily. Bridget who rather beat the machine being second. Woodstown was left at the post.

Roslyn was an odds on favorite in the last race, but Irving ruined his chances by going out and racing with May Fern. Hillsboro laid back till the stretch, when he came up and beat the favorite handily.

Judge Cass, of the Superior Court was a visitor at Forsyth yesterday and occupied a seat in the judges stand. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the surroundings and the racing.

The entries for the Indiana Derby, to be run at Sheffield on May 9, close on Monday.

BILL MCGUIGAN'S WOE.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 24.—The Arlington Hotel Selling Stakes to-day furnished an exciting finish and considerable loud talking. Gus Strauss' Tin Cup got the decision although it looked from the stand as though Lexington Pirate had won.

The decision so aroused McGuigan that he acted like a crazy man in front of the judges stand and wound up by running the winner up $200 over his entered price, $700, Strauss buying him in for the accustomed $500. No doubt Tin Cup was the best colt. He was cut off and badly interfered with at the three-eighths pole and was obliged to run around his field. The Tartarian race looked bad and Jockey Murphy has been suspended.

The much touted Order—Victorine colt Ornament, made his appearance and won like a good one.

CALIFORNIA GOSSIP.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 24.—The only race horse in California now owned by Barney Schreiber is Hiram Argo. He has managed to dispose of all the others in the past two weeks. Foul Shot will be shipped to St. Louis on or about April 26. Dr. Rowell will ship in the same car. He has not had a very successful season. The sickness of Figaro proved a costly one, besides, Ed Gaines was on deck to run up every winner from the Doctor's stable.

Green B. Morris is making active preparations to go East. Strathmeath is to be turned out all the summer at Rancho del Paso. Morris thinks he will be able to win a few more races with the American Derby winner next winter. It is a bit uncertain at this writing whether he will bring Star Ruby East.

Norman Brough, ex-Bay District handicapper, has been secured as judge and handicapper for the Montana circuit. There is just a possibility that James B. Ferguson will do the starting. Quite a number of California horses will go to Montana this year.

Cincinnati's Latest Woe.

CINCINNATI O., April 24.—Col. Hatch and a syndicate have leased Rosedale race track near Latonia and will commence electric light races within thirty days.

Kentucky Derby Facts.

The fashion now in Kentucky turfism is to recommend Sir Vassar for the Derby as against Brush. The printed credentials run to a point of declaration that the Sir Dixon colt ran Crescendo to nose in a terrific finish at San Francisco. Rats! The race was a mile handicap run at Ingleside April 8. Crescendo carried 113 pounds and Sir Vassar 101 pounds. Sir Vassar led the Flambeau colt by four lengths into the stretch and was worn down and beaten by half a length. These are the facts of actuality in racing, not the flub-dub of plugging and enthusiasm. Sir Vassar is an improved colt. There's no doubt of that. He had insanity in his disposition last season. But he has to beat Ramiro if Ben Brufh should be the colt his 1895 form indicates.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

John Flynn, a Canadian horseman, has bought Basso from McNaughton & Muir for $1,500.

W. H. Roller's fair colt, Haekel, 3, by Bramble—Elsie Gaylord, died recently of lung fever. Ben Brush made his trip from New York to Louisville well. Harry Reed was badly shaken and cut up during the journey.

An idea of Lucky Baldwin's eastern string under Frank Taylor may be gleaned from his application by wire to Louisville for sixteen stalls.

F. A. Dwyer, who has an interest in Regan and Decision, has been ruled off by the Ingleside Association of San Francisco, for fraud and toutage.

Eastern bookmakers have, it is said, organized a protective association, the entrance fee to which is $500. The organization will take the guise of the London club of bookmakers.
